

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. P R E F A C E .

Volume I is a book measuring $13\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $5\frac{1}{2}$ in., containing 132 parchment pages, bound in leather and fastened by two brass clasps. It is in very good preservation. The first four pages contain miscellaneous entries, 1704—1706. On page 5 Baptisms commence at 1566 and continue till page 50, 1662 ; Marriages, page 51-68, 1576—1657 ; Burials, page 69-98, 1566—1662.

From page 99-132 the entries are mixed and end in 1704, and are continued to 1706 at the commencement of the book. A few Briefs are recorded on the insides of the covers.

Volume II is a volume containing entries of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials, from 1706—1742. It contains 58 parchment pages and measures $13\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $5\frac{1}{2}$ in., and is bound in leather and is in good condition. The fly leaves and insides of covers contain rough notes of the entries which appear in their proper places in the Volume.

Volume III contains entries of Baptisms and Burials from 1743—1812, and Marriages 1743—1753. It contains 42 parchment and 4 paper pages, and measures $12\frac{1}{2}$ in. by 8 in., it is in very good condition and is bound in parchment.

Some copies of mural inscriptions in the church are written on the paper leaves.

Volume IV contains Banns and Marriages from 1754—1812, in the usual printed form. Only 38 pages are used. It is bound in leather and measures 15 in. by $9\frac{1}{2}$ in.

A List of the Rectors and Vicars of Headon.

The earliest records shew that this parish has for many centuries always had both a Rector and a Vicar; the Rector was obliged to be a Priest, but he was not obliged to reside in the parish. The late Canon Evelyn Hardolph Harcourt-Vernon, when patron of the living, procured an Order in Council, dated 2 March 1881, by which the Rectory and Vicarage were united, to take effect on the first avoidance of either. On 4 April 1883 Canon Harcourt-Vernon resigned the Rectory, and the then Vicar became the Rector.

- A Copy of the Inscription upon the late S^r Hardolph Wasteneys's Marble Monument, Which said Monument is affixed to the East Wall,* within the Chancel of the Church of Headon, on the South Side of the Window May 15 1757.

* Now on the North Wall.

Here lie the Remains of S^r Hardolph Wasteneys Bar^t being the last of his Family in the Male Line; who, how respectable soever for the Antiquity of it, was more so for the Excellency of his Virtues.

Dame Judith, his Widow to whom He behaved with all the Tenderness of an indulgent Husband, the more to signify* the Sense She had both of his and her own Affection, ordered this Monument to be erected to his Memory

S^r Hardolph died Dec^r 17, 1742, in the 69th Year of his Age.

On Wednesday last died at Matlock, in Derbyshire the Lady of Robert Drummond Esq^r of Brodsworth in the County of York; whose Virtues were superiour to Praise, and whose Loss is beyond the Expression of Grief.

Nottingham Journal, Saturday, April 1, 1780.

M^{rs} Drummond, the Time of whose Death is set down as above, was Julia, the only Daughter of Anthony Eyre Esq^r of Grove, by Judith Lætitia his Wife, born October 26 1755, and married April 19, 1779. Buried at Brodsworth in the County of York above mentioned, April 4, 1780.
